

Evansville Stamp Club Reference Library

The Evansville Stamp Club maintains a reference library open to all members. The library contains several important volumes including one by Henry Myers, a past member, on Hawaiian stamps that is a seminal work on these stamps. In addition, there are past Scott catalogues, publications on various types of stamps, cancellations and many other interesting and informative topics.